Your agent (attorney-in-fact) has no duty to act unless you and your agent agree otherwise in writing.

This document gives your agent the powers to manage, dispose of, sell, and convey your real and personal property, and to use your property as security if your agent borrows money on your behalf. This document does not give your agent the power to accept or receive any of your property, in trust or otherwise, as a gift, unless you specifically authorize the agent to accept or receive a gift.

Your agent will have the right to receive reasonable payment for services provided under this limited power of attorney unless you provide otherwise in this power of attorney.

The powers you give your agent will continue to exist for your entire lifetime, unless you state that the limited power of attorney will last for a shorter period of time or unless you otherwise terminate the limited power of attorney. If it is signed by two witnesses, they must witness either (1) the signing of the power of attorney or (2) the principal's signing or acknowledgment of his or her signature. A limited power of attorney that may affect real property should be acknowledged before a notary public so that it may easily be recorded.

You should read this limited power of attorney carefully. When effective, this limited power of attorney will give your agent the right to deal with property that you now have or might acquire in the future. The limited power of attorney is important to you. If you do not understand the limited power of attorney, or any provision of it, then you should obtain the assistance of an attorney or other qualified person.

The undersigned hereby grants to each such attorney-in-fact full power and authority to do and perform any and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, necessary, or proper to be done in the exercise of any of the rights and powers herein granted, as fully to all intents and purposes as the undersigned might or could do if personally present, and confirming all that such attorney-in-fact shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this Limited Power of Attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have duly executed this limited power of attorney, this ____ day of _____, 20____
